*Saturday + Sunday
November 22-23, 2008*

Four score and 65 years ago, Abraham Lincoln visited Gettysburg, PA, the site of a major battle between the Union and Confederate Armies a few months earlier. He came to dedicate a cemetery for the war dead and to deliver his famous Gettysburg Address. Join Troop 176 as we visit Gettysburg and tour the historic battlefield.

- ★ Battlefield Tour - Pickett's Charge, the Angle, Little Round Top, Devils Den — led by Scout Guides!
- ★ Remembrance Day Parade -- see thousands of Civil War re-enactors in period costumes

First-year scouts: Bring your COMPASS. We'll hike the battlefield and you'll have a chance to pass your second-class 5-hike requirement.
